

Competition between financial centres and cross-border wealth

*Dr Alexander Ressos, TEP
Attorney-at-Law (Switzerland), Solicitor (Hong Kong),
Solicitor (England & Wales)*

The data come from the Boston Consulting Group and the Global Financial Centres Index.¹

Indicator	Value	Reference	Part
Cross-border wealth managed in Hong Kong	USD 2,900 billion	2025	K
Cross-border wealth managed in Switzerland	USD 2,900 billion	2025	K
Cross-border wealth managed in Singapore	USD 2,100 billion	2025	K
United States, United Kingdom, United Arab Emirates	USD 1,600, 1,000 and 700 billion	2025	K
Global total of cross-border wealth	USD 15,700 billion (+8.4%)	2025	K
Switzerland and Hong Kong in the previous year	USD 2,700 billion each	2024	K
Ranking of Zurich, Luxembourg and Geneva (GFCI 39)	11th, 16th and 18th	March 2026	K
Centres assessed by GFCI 39	120	March 2026	K

1 Notes

1. Boston Consulting Group, Global Wealth Report 2025 and 2026; The Global Financial Centres Index 39, March 2026, cited in Part K. ↩

For general information only. This article does not constitute legal or tax advice, does not replace advice on an individual case and creates no lawyer-client relationship. It reflects the legal position as of September 2026.

Online version: helveticaregister.com/geneva-competition-between-financial-centres-and-cross-border-wealth