

Popular votes on relations with the European Union

*Dr Alexander Ressos, TEP
Attorney-at-Law (Switzerland), Solicitor (Hong Kong),
Solicitor (England & Wales)*

The results come from the official chronology published by the Federal Department of Foreign Affairs.¹

Subject	Result	Date	Part
Accession to the European Economic Area	rejected by 50.3%	6 December 1992	K
Bilateral Agreements I	approved by 67.2%	21 May 2000	K
Association with Schengen and Dublin	approved by 54.6%	5 June 2005	K
Extension of the free movement of persons	approved by 56%	25 September 2005	K
Continuation of the free movement of persons	approved by 59.6%	8 February 2009	K
Initiative “Contre l’immigration de masse” [Against mass immigration]	approved by 50.3%	9 February 2014	K
Limitation initiative	rejected by 61.71%	27 September 2020	K
Initiative “Pas de Suisse à 10 millions !” [No 10-million Switzerland!]	rejected by 54.8%	14 June 2026	K

1 Notes

1. Federal Department of Foreign Affairs, “Votes et chronologie” [Votes and chronology], europa.eda.admin.ch (accessed September 2026). ↩

For general information only. This article does not constitute legal or tax advice, does not replace advice on an individual case and creates no lawyer-client relationship. It reflects the legal position as of September 2026.

Online version: helveticaregister.com/geneva-popular-votes-on-relations-with-the-european-union