

Sustainable finance, technology and European relations

*Dr Alexander Ressos, TEP
Attorney-at-Law (Switzerland), Solicitor (Hong Kong),
Solicitor (England & Wales)*

The data come from Swiss Sustainable Finance, the Chambers guide to Swiss fintech, the press and the federal authorities.¹

Indicator	Value	Reference	Part
Sustainability-related investments in Switzerland	CHF 1,881 billion (+13%)	2024	K
Share of private investors	33%	2024	K
Fintech companies in Switzerland	529, of which 316 in Zurich and Zug	2025	K
FlowBank accounts and employees at the time of its bankruptcy	22,000 and 140	June 2024	K
Temenos clients	more than 3,000 institutions in 145 countries	2024	K
Partner states for the automatic exchange of information on crypto-assets	74	2025	K
Agreements and protocols in the Switzerland–EU package	18	2026	K
Laws amended, new laws, EU acts adopted	36, 3 and 94	2026	K
Additional capital required of UBS (estimate)	around USD 20 billion	2026	K
Approval of the Electronic Identity Act	50.39%	28 September 2025	K

Indicator	Value	Reference	Part
Rejection of the initiative “Pas de Suisse à 10 millions !” [No 10-million Switzerland!]	54.8%	14 June 2026	K

1 Notes

1. Swiss Sustainable Finance, Market Study 2025 (via UBP, 3 July 2025); Chambers and Partners, Fintech 2026 – Switzerland; 20 minutes, 13 June 2024; Federal Department of Foreign Affairs, europa.eda.admin.ch; Federal Council, 22 April 2026, cited in Part K.
↩

For general information only. This article does not constitute legal or tax advice, does not replace advice on an individual case and creates no lawyer-client relationship. It reflects the legal position as of September 2026.

Online version: helveticaregister.com/geneva-sustainable-finance-technology-and-european-relations