

The Geneva financial centre

*Dr Alexander Ressos, TEP
Attorney-at-Law (Switzerland), Solicitor (Hong Kong),
Solicitor (England & Wales)*

The data on the financial centre come mainly from the Fondation Genève Place Financière and its annual economic survey, as well as from the Office cantonal de la statistique (cantonal statistical office).¹

Indicator	Value	Reference	Part
Jobs in the Geneva financial sector	close to 38,000	2025	E, K
Share of cantonal gross domestic product	12.9%	2025	E, K
Share of cantonal tax revenue	23%	2025	K
Number of banks in Geneva	121, then 80	2014 and 2024	E
Banking jobs in Geneva	19,415, then 17,639	2014 and 2024	E
Wealth managers licensed by FINMA	1,532 out of 1,864 applications	February 2025	E
Wealth managers who withdrew	around 650, or –26%	2025	E
Corporate profit tax rate in Geneva	13.99%	since 2020	E, K
Rejection of the inheritance tax initiative	78.3%	30 November 2025	E

1 Notes

1. “La place financière genevoise ‘se porte bien’” [The Geneva financial centre “is doing well”], Léman Bleu, 16 October 2025; Fondation Genève Place Financière and Allnews, 21 October 2024 and 16 October 2025, cited in Parts E and K. ↩

For general information only. This article does not constitute legal or tax advice, does not replace advice on an individual case and creates no lawyer-client relationship. It reflects the legal position as of September 2026.

Online version: helveticaregister.com/geneva-the-geneva-financial-centre